General Instructions Regarding the Application of this Paper:

1. To attain the optimum level of the LSRW skills, the entire atmosphere of the classroom must be set only in Arabic. This means, no language other than Arabic is allowed to use either in the teaching or management of the class. No translation is permitted. The teacher has to bring plenty of examples in various contexts using all new words and structures so that the students will be familiarized with them in a very natural way same as they acquired the mother tongue. Therefore, the teacher has to stick onto 100% Arabic atmosphere. Audio visual forms of all contents should be included and all classroom should be equipped with audio visual facilities.
2. To get a full practical training to use the Arabic handwriting script - Ruqa'ah - and to naturalize it among all students, the text-cum-workbook would be printed in such a way that the students will be unintentionally using this script while doing the exercises of the book. In order to correct each case of letters, special attention is given to selected letters in each module and words including these letters will be practiced in those particular places. All that the teacher writes on the board is to be done only in Ruqa'ah script. Evaluation of the writing style of the students would mainly be done through the Internal Assessments. However, special direct questions for a minimum mark, as mentioned in the syllabus, may be asked during the End Term examination as well.
3. To attain the native accent and better the already acquired speech style, training on pronunciation is included as an integral part in each module with special focus on dealing with particular difficulties encountered by Malayalam speakers while producing special Arabic sounds. In certain cases, interlingual comparison is also provided so that the students can distinguish certain letters and their particular sound differences in Arabic, Malayalam and English languages. Evaluation related to pronunciation can only be assessed through Continuous Internal Assessments. However, very small part of questions for small marks may be asked in the End term Examinations also. This includes questions to distinguish between certain Arabic sounds and their particularities compared with the same in Malayalam and English.
4. The cultural component is included at the end of each module with the aim of giving the students a direct exposure to the world of the language through different interesting areas, so as to fascinate and attract them to learn more about the culture of the Arabic speaking world. In this part, the level of the language of the text may not match with level of the Course, and no question will be asked from this part in the End term Examinations. However, if the instructors so desire, they may use this part for Internal Assessments only with light questions in simple language structures.
5. The main text part in the prescribed text-cum-workbook is intended only to serve as a model to guide the teachers and students to know what and how to learn in a particular module. The most important thing is to attain the particular LSRW skills mentioned in each module by means of any text framed, created, developed, or selected by the instructor, group of teachers or others. Simply saying, the text in the textbook is less important, and the curricular objectives and their results are the only important aims.

6. A Six days Workshop – equal to one tenth of the total period of the 60 days of the Semester– is compulsorily to be conducted to get practical training to students in Ruqa'ah handwriting, Orthography, Pronunciation and Cultural Components. To ensure maximum benefits, the Workshop can be planned as three 2-days spells, to be organized in the initial, middle and end of the Semester.

7. If it is possible, a training programme for the teaching faculties is highly recommended, to be conducted just before the commencement of the Semester, on how to deal with this Paper and its study materials including the Text-cum-workbook prescribed along with the Syllabus.

8. To enlance the language with its culture, it is strongly recommended that during a Semester period at least one minor and one major cultural event is to be organized for the students. Minor cultural events may include musical fest, Calligraphy Corner, Arab dress fest, Arabic Cultural Quiz Competitions, Arabic Museum Setting etc. Major cultural events such as Arab Athletics, Arabic Football match, Arab Shoot-out Contest, Arabic Food Fest, Arab Cinema Carnival, Arabic Eid/ Onam/ Christmas Celebrations, Arabic Calligraphy with Henna, Colorful Arabic Day Celebrations etc. can be celebrated with the participation of all the interested students from various other Departments, too..
